

Zarnegin Launches High-End Rug Collection from India

Zarnegin is introducing its new collection of high-end rugs from India. These luxurious, richly detailed, delicately hand-knotted carpets of exquisite colors and patterns are crafted by expert weavers. They benefit from the finest materials (including silk), the best dyes (including vegetable dyes), and designs that are truly exceptional. Zarnegin's collection features many different classic Persian designs, such as Hadji Jalili Tabriz, Mohtashem Kashan, and Tabriz Mahi. Many of the designs are available on a programmed basis.

New Shipments of Tribal Carpets Have Arrived

In order to meet the demand for hand-knotted tribal and village rugs, Zarnegin International has recently received two large shipments of one-of-a-kind tribal rugs and kelims from Iran and Afghanistan. The shipments contain over 2,500 pieces and include exotic collectibles, such as tribal tent furnishings and animal trappings. A large number of the rugs and kelims were woven in southwestern Iran and feature rare geometric and floral designs in striking colors. Available in sizes ranging from 3'x 5' to 9'x 12', these traditional pieces were made of 100% wool and personally handpicked for quality and beauty. To see more photos of these distinctive pieces, please visit our website at www.zarneginrugs.com.

Catch the Rising Tide of Enthusiasm for Rugs from Afghanistan

In the high deserts and mountains of Afghanistan, rugged nomads still make carpets according to a centuries-old tradition.

Working in circular domed tents on horizontal looms, using fat-tailed sheep wool that has been shorn, carded, and dyed entirely by hand, these skilled nomadic people create rugs of unmatched character, quality, and durability. This is carpet weaving in its purest, most uncompromising form, and Zarnegin International therefore takes great pleasure in the growing popularity of these Afghan rugs. Our company founder, Nasser Zarnegin (right), has spent many years traveling in Afghanistan to build relationships with skilled rug-weaving tribes. As a result, we are able to offer our dealers a large selection of these rugs. Please visit us to see this dazzling array of unique weavings.

Zarnegin Has Moved to ORICA

In 2007, we relocated our operations to the Oriental Rug Industry Center of America (ORICA) in Secaucus, New Jersey. So far, the move has been very beneficial for both us and our dealers. Our two new showrooms are housed on the second floor of the building, in Suites 201 North and 217 North, so please come in and visit us. For your convenience, we have situated our main showroom directly above the lobby.
